Montelair, N. J., January 13.—A battle that lasted longer than an hour and covered five miles was waged yesterday between a buildog suffering from rabies and Benneville Hauser, of Lattie Falls. The place of the battle was a wagen which Hauser was driving and in which he had placed the buildog, a pet, to take it to the Montelair Veterinary Hospital. Hauser had no idea until shortly after he had left home the animal had gone mad and that he was in immilient peril of being torn and of having the rabies sent into his own blood.

FEARS TO LET ANIMAL GO

When Hauser arose in the morning he noticed that Sport, the buildog, was acting strangely. Being fond of the beast he decided to save his life by taking it to the hospital. He geared his horse, helped the dog into the wagon and then got in himself, permitting the dog to occupy a place he side him on the seat. They mad not growling and snapping at him. The animal still had a glimmering of intelligence, however, and that impelled covered five miles was waged yester-day between a buildog suffering a proper currency.

When the institution was reached he yelled for assistance, and several men ran out. They sized up the situation at once and hurried back and got leashes. As Hauser held the animal they slipped nooses about its neck and lerked it to the road so auddenly it had no opportunity to bite its master. Once on the ground it was helpless because the leashes led in different directions and were held taut. A few seconds of examination convinced Dr. McDonough that the animal was rabid, and he shot it while the men held it. Now a mad dog scare exists in this town. A dozen dogs here were bitten last week by a dog supposed to have been mad. Several of the affected dogs have been killed by their owners, and David Steinfeld, who is known throughout Northern New Jersey as an expert dog catcher, has been retained by the city officials to kill all suspected animals.

Some leading built are said to have been as course of prices. Some leading builts are said to have been soling on railles. Southern, Wall Street and Western selling has been noticed. Also, there is some talk of curtainwent of production of goods at Fall River if not at the South. Liverpool's spot business list continued large, and Lancashire has sent decidedly occuraging reports. It is doing a large business with the far East at strong prices, business with the far East at strong prices. Dun's Trade Review.

New York, January 13.—R. G. Dun
Company's weekly review of trade
co-morrow will say: Business condi-

at many points there are signs of re-newing activity.

More buyers are in the dry goods markets attending openings of cotton blankets, men's wear and other lines, and operations have been more satis-factory. There has been considerable blankets, men's wear and other lines, and operations have been more satisfactory. There has been considerable activity in bleached cotton, and advances were made of one-quarter of a cent a yard on Lonsdales, and half a cent on fruit of the loom. Export trade is steady, but light. The dimension of the securing of prices commensurate with the costs of production have forced meetings of manufacturers in cotton centres for the purpose of restricting the output and preventing accumulations from high cost cotton. Many visiting buyers are in the Boston footwear market examining the situation there, and it is believed some fair orders will be booked owing to the small holdings in both wholesalers' and dealers' hands throughout the country at large.

World's Visible Supply. World's Visible Supply.

New Orleans, La., January 13.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton Issued to-day shows the total to be 5,344 '6 against 5,321,321 last week, and 4,939,710 last year. Of this the total of American. cotton is 4,227,856, against 1,282,321 last week, and 3,507,718 last year, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc. 1,111,000, against 1,039,000 last week and 1,132,000 last year. Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now affoat and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe, 1,862,000, against 2,622,000 last year; in Egypt, 295,000, against 2,38,000, against 548,000 last year, and in the United States, 2,790,000, against 1,545,000 last year.
